

Letter of Agreement

Ubonratchathani University and the Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen, U.K. agree to formally establish academic links to support and enhance all areas of Pharmacy.

Background

For almost 5 years, the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Science, Ubonratchathani University and the School of Pharmacy, the Robert Gordon University, have collaborated informally and formally. Academic staff have been exchanged and it is now considered timely to strengthen and enhance the links on a formal basis. Collaboration would be mainly focussed on the exchange of staff and students involving pharmaceutical, and biopharmaceutical sciences, and pharmacy practice.

Aim

The aim is to foster closer relations between the Faculty of Pharmaceutical Science, Ubonratchathani University and the School of Pharmacy, the Robert Gordon University, U.K. during the next 3 years.

The activities envisaged are as follows:

1. Staff and student exchange

Ubonratchathani University is to send staff/students to the Robert Gordon University to participate in training, short courses or research projects carried out at the Robert Gordon University.

2. Research

The Robert Gordon University is to provide staff for consultation to help staff and students of Ubonratchathani University to conduct individual projects which might lead to a postgraduate qualification awarded by the Robert Gordon University. Part of the research could be undertaken at Ubonratchathani University

Financial Arrangements

Ubonratchathani University and the Robert Gordon University, UK. will both endeavour to generate income to support the proposed collaborative venture as outlined above
